Foreword

I feel both pleasure and pride in being called upon to write foreword to this book. This is Pt. Ramesh Arya's second book and he has fully justified the promise shown by first book "Vedic Vani" printed by Om Sharnam under the sponsorship of Pt. Ramesh Arya Charitable Trust Jalandhar. This is not surprising as he has had a brilliant spiritual career culminating the Vedic Sanskriti for which a pious flame was enlightened by Swami Dayanand Saraswati the founder of Arya Samaj in this world.

Pt. Ramesh has fully covered the subject of meditation by practicing Havan Yagna in the original text (Sanskrit) and translation in English to approach the holy hearts of public living in India and abroad. The language has been kept simple, making the book extremely readable.

I wish Pt. Ramesh Arya (my Guru) all success in this as well as in future, efforts in this direction.

HINDUISM

(S.D. MALHOTRA)

In the ancient religious literature of India, we do not come across any word that corresponds to the word "HINDUISM". There the word used for the religion of the Hindus is "Sanatana Dharma" (Eternal Religion) or "VAIDIKA DHARMA" (Vedic Religion). The word "Hindu" is a distortion of the word "Sindhu", referring to the river Indus (Sindhu, in Sanskrit). The ancient valley 'Hindus' – probably they could not pronounce the word 'Sindhu'. Sindhu thus became 'HINDHU' then 'HINDU' and the religion of the Hindhus came to be known as Hinduism, which is the accepted word today referring to the religion of Vedas and the Upanishdas. The correct name would be Vedic Religion or Eternal Religion. Hinduism is one of the major living religions of the world and it is the most ancient among them all. There is no recorded history relating to the origin of Hinduism, whereas Buddhism, Christianity, Islam etc. are religions that have a beginning in history. Unlike other religions Hindusim is not founded upon the life and teachings of a single Seer or Prophet. Hinduism is an impersonal religion and does not owe its origin to any single person. Hinduism is based on the teachings of the VEDAS, the most authoritative Scriptures of India. The Vedas are the oldest religious literature extant today. To the Hindus, the authority of the Vedas is final. People living in India before the origin of word Hindu were known as ARYAS.

Religion and Dharma are different and Hindus (ARYAS) believe in Dharma. Religions are founded by various Prophets, Seers or Gurus. They have a beginning and their teachings are summarised in the form of holy books. Religions can be many and their teachings can differ. DHARMA is one and is universal, based on truth, simplicity and logic. It is a way of life leading us to Godhead, helping us in our spiritual advancement and rewarding us with peace, happiness, bliss and prosperity. Great Seer MANU has given the definition of DHARMA as "Dhriti Kshama Damo-asteyam Shoucham Indriya Nigreha Dhee Vidya Satyam Akrodho Dashkam Dharmam Lakshnam".

Meaning:- DHRITI (Patience), KSHAMA (Forgiveness), DAMAN (Self Control), ASTEYA (Non Stealing), SHOUCH (Cleanliness), INDRIYA NIGREH (Control over Senses), DHEE (Intellect), VIDYA (Knowledge), SATYA (Truth), AKRODH (Lack of Anger).

Truth is simple, sweet and leads to Godhead. The world rests on truth, impartial justice, acceptance of truth, total abandonment of Untruth. Such conduct is Dharma. If our actions have added to happiness, comfort and peace in the world, it is Dharma.

Hindus believe that like God, Soul and Prakriti, the DHARMA is eternal. From the time of creation, almighty God, gave his DIVINE KNOWLEDGE in the form of VEDAS through Seers, for the benefit of mankind. Teaching of Vedas is universal and eternal. I quote the Western philosophers views.

MAXMULLER:"The Vedas are the oldest books claiming to be Words of God". (Message of the Vedas).

"If there is a God who has created heaven and earth, it will be unjust on HIS part if HE deprives millions of souls before MORIS of HIS divine knowledge to human beings from the very first appearance of man on earth". "The Vedas are Eternal and consequently PERFECT and INFALLIBLE" (Introduction of Science & Religion).

SHOPENHAUR (German Scholar).

"Vedic Religion is destined, sooner or later to become the faith of the people."

MACDONNEL: "Rigveda is the oldest literary monument in the history of Indo-European languages."

TOLSTOY: "I wish to spend the fag end of my life in the devotion of God, just as the HINDUS do."

BISHOP HARREN "The Vedas stand serving as beacon of DIVINE LIGHT in the onward march of humanity."

DR. JAMES CUSSINS: "Path of Peace" This Vedic religion enjoins on all to be above all sectarianism and shun differences. It teaches to be a MAN, a good man is the true sense of the term. THEN and THEN ONLY, it will be good for all."

Hinduism gives freedom of worship as it believes that Paths leading to the goal are many. It recognises that the need of each individual is different and accept diversity of religious paths. A Sanskrit verse says "Just as water falling from the sky goes to the sea, so the Salutations offered to the various gods reach GOD alone."

Hinduism is not a religion but a parliament of religions. It is not a dogma but the father of all dogmas. It is not a stream but an ocean where all streams meet. Hinduism is a journey from impurity towards light, from death towards immortality from slavery towards freedom, from hatred towards love, renunciation and service. Hindusim is not an end, it is the never ending path for the achievement of the everlasting end. Hinduism is a path of continuous search of the absolute truth.

YAJNA

The Yajna (sacred fire) holds a place of great importance to all Hindu religious ceremonies. When the yajna or havan is performed ghee (molten butter) and havan samagree are used as oblation. The havan samagree is made up of sandal wood, other vegetable matter, medicinal herbs and roots and food products. The act of putting ghee and samagree into the fire after the chanting of mantras (sacred verses) is called ahuti (oblation). Every ahuti or offering is made with the chanting of the word 'swaha'.

The Yajna is not a worship to the visible fire. Agni is one of the important names of God. It means all pervading, adorable and effulgent. Fire is an indicator of radiance and heat. The flame of the yajna or the lamp is a symbolic representation of the victory of light over darkness, of knowledge over ignorance and prosperity over poverty. A prayer in the Upnishad reads:

ASATO MA SAD GAMAYA: TAMASO MA JYOTIR GAMAYA:
MRITYOR MA AMRITAM GAMAYA.

O God, lead us from untruth to truth;
Lead us from darkness to light;
Lead us from death to immortality.

पुस्तकालय 128085

Benefits of Yajna

While performing the yajna we pray to God and sing verses in praise of Him. These verses have lofty thoughts which describe the attributes and functions of God. The verses urge us to perform good deeds and make our lives nobler. Through the yajnas we get the opportunity of studying the Vedas and other scriptures and in this way the intellect and the mind become pure.

One main benefit from the yajna is that it purifies the air and surrounding atmosphere. Germ-destroying, health-promoting and sweet-smelling ingredients are used in the oblation. They destroy the disease carrying germs and purify the air. The warm air of the Yajna spreads to all places in the home and its surroundings and thus drives out foul air. It is in the nature of the fire to break up the ingredients of the samagri into atoms and spread them around and thus destroy the germs that spread disease.

These days many medicines (germicides) are used to destroy germs that spread disease. These medicines are beneficial but they also contain some kind of poison which is sprayed in the air. The air is thus polluted with the possibility of harmful effects. This pollution spreads into the air and enters our body. It settles on our food and drinks and enters the stomach. For example, D.D.T. was used in the USA to disinfect stables housing cattle. The D.D.T. affected the milk of the cows. This was found out when children who drank the dairy milk became ill.

In contrast to this discovery, an interesting case cited in the report of the department of health of the Province of Punjab in India. During the epidemic of plague it was noticed that the occupants of certain homes were not much affected by the disease. Upon investigation it was learnt that the less affected homes were those of the members of the Arya Samaj who were in the habit of performing yajnas (havans) daily. This discovery bears evidence of the fact that the yajna helps to kill germs and purify the atmosphere.

A yajna is a symbol of the ideal of giving away and sharing everything in one's life 'Idam na mama' (This is not mine, it belongs to whole society)

'By burning a medicine, a very small part of the smoke which we know as fragrance spread in the surrounding atmosphere and, when inhaled, it goes into the lungs and brings new light through chemical elements. And the proof of it is that the fragrance of a flower or other things fills our heart with joy'.

– Dr Hahneman (founder of Homeopathy)

'Burning sugar and its smoke have great power to purify the atmosphere. It kills the germs of T.B., measles, smallpox and cow pox.

PRAYER – AUM

Purification of the mind is of greater importance than the purification of the body for advancing towards the path of God realisation. It behoves us to sing the glories of God, pray to, and meditate on Him. The tongue cannot describe the happiness, which communion with God brings, when ignorance and other like impurities have been washed away, by means of prayer and japa. Prayer makes us humble and noble. Let us start our PRAYER with JAPA (recitation) of AUM, understanding its deep meanings.

AUM

AUM is the supreme name of God. The word Aum has the power of expressing various ideas and qualities of God. The word Aum is made up of three letters, namely: A, U, and M. These three letters express the three great qualities of God.

'A' denotes the power of God to create the universe. 'U' denotes the power of God to preserve the universe. 'M' denotes the power of God to dissolve the universe. On this basis God is known to us by three names. 'A' Braham (Creator), 'U' Vishnu (Preserver) and 'M' Shiva (Destroyer).

When we pronounce the word AUM, the vocal organs express these qualities of God.

To say 'A' (aa) we have to open our mouths. Thus 'A' is also the first letter of the alphabet of all languages. Thus 'A' signifies the beginning of, or the creation of the universe.

When saying 'U' (oo) the mouth is still kept open and the lips are curved. This signifies the quality of maintaining, preserving and sustaining.

When 'M' is pronounced the lips have to be closed. This signifies the quality of bringing something to an end. Thus we know that God is the creator, preserver and destroyer of this universe. This natural Law of God has been in practice for an indefinite period of time and will continue to be so for an indefinite period of time.

The word Aum also has two special meanings. It means 'OMNIPRESENT' and 'PROTECTOR'. God is present in every particle of the atom and there is not a place imaginable where His presence is not to be felt. Being Omnipresent He is protecting this universe through His power, knowledge and His laws. God is also the protector of His devotees.

PURPORT OF AUM. O All pervading Creator, Preserver and Destroyer. Thou art my Protector. Under thy care and guidance may I be righteous.

THE GAYATRI MANTRA – SAVITA MANTRA – GURU MANTRA

This hymn is the most significant in as much as it lays great stress upon the constant divine-guidance and urge to our human intellects and wisdom. Nothing can be achieved without the power of intelligence. Man comes down to the level of a brute if he is deprived of the blessings of this power. Hence in the Gayatri Mantra, God is invoked to stimulate our intelligence and guide it on the path of righteousness. Intelligence and wisdom make us god-like and man's merit is measured greatly by this factor alone.

OM BHUR BHUVAH SWAH. TAT SAVITUR VARENYAM. BHARGO DEVASYA DHIMAHI. DHIYO YO NAH PRACHODAYAT.

SUBSTANCE: We pray to God; who is the basis of the life of the whole Universe, self existent, who is free from pains, whose communion frees the souls from the causes of miseries, who pervades the whole Universe and sustains it, who is the creator and energiser of the whole Universe, who is the giver of all happiness, the worthiest being sought after, the supreme intelligence, the ever pure and unchangeable, May we embrace the purest conception of that very God! What for? So that He may direct our faculties of mind to keep us away from evil deeds, evil thoughts and evil ways and direct us towards the path of righteousness. Let us not worship anything but God, there is none His equal and superior. He alone is our Father, Ruler, the judge and the happiness giver.

SIGNIFICANCE: One should ponder over the meaning contained in the Gayatri Mantra, through it one meditates on God, the purest existent, thus purifying one's intelligence and becomes worthy of following the path of righteousness.

(Maharishi Dayanand Saraswati)

PRAYER

I know not by what methods rare.
But this I know – God answers prayer.
I know not when He sends the word;
That tells us fervent prayer is heard.
I know it cometh sooner or later.
Therefore we need to pray and wait.
I know not if the blessing sought.
Will come in just the way I thought.
I leave my prayers with Him alone.
Whose will is wiser than my own.

AARTI

आरती

Om jai jagadish hare, swami jai jagadish hare
Glory to the Creator of the world:

जय जगदीश हरे, जय जगदीश हरे।

Bhakta jano ke sankat, kshana men door kare
Who takes away the troubles of the devotee in a flash:

भक्त जनन के संकट, क्षण में दूर करे॥

Jo dhyavae phal pave, dukh vinashe man ka
He who prays gets the fruit: troubles of the mind are set at peace:

जो ध्यावे फल पावे, दुख विनसे मन का।

Sukh sampati ghar ave, kashta mite tan ka
Peace and prosperity come home: problems of the body disappear:

सुख सम्पति घर आवे, कष्ट मिटे तन का॥

Maat pita tum mere, sharan gahun main kisaki
You are my parents, who else could I surrender to for retreat:

मात-पिता तुम मेरे, शरण गहूं किसकी।

Tum bina aur na duja, aas karun main jisaki
Without you there is no one else whom I can rely upon:

तुम बिन और न दूजा, आस करूं जिसकी॥

Tum pooran paramatma, tum anteryami
You are omnipresent, you are omipotent:

तुम पूरण परमात्मा, तुम अन्तर्यामी।

Paar Braham Parmeshwar, tum sab ke swami
You are the Supreme Lord: you are everyone's Master:

पारब्रह्म परमेश्वर, तुम सब के स्वामी॥

Tum karuna ke sagar, tum palan karta
You are extremely merciful: You are the protector:

तुम करुणा के सागर, तुम पालनकर्ता।

Main sevak tum swami, kripa karo bharta
I am your servant, you are my Lord: Have mercy on me:

मैं सेवक तुम स्वामी, कृपा करो भर्ता ॥

Tum ho ek agochar, sab ke pran pati
You are the one invisible: you are dear to everyone's heart

तुम हो एक अगोचर, सबके प्राणपति ।

Kis vidh miloo dayamay tumko main kumati
How should I meet you - compassionate one,
I being so ignorant;

किस विधि मिलूं दयामय, तुमको मैं कुमति ॥

Deen vandhu dukh harta tum rakshak mere
O friend of the poor, remover of all sorrows, O my protector;

दीनबन्धु दुखहर्ता, तुम रक्षक मेरे ।

Karuna hath uthao, dwar pare tere
Raise your merciful hands; I am at your doorstep;

करुणा-हस्त बढ़ाओ, द्वार पड़ा तेरे ॥

Vishaya vikar mitao, paap haro deva
Remove all my worldly passions and desires; Free me from sin;

विषय विकार मिटाओ, पाप हरो देवा ।

Shraddha bhakti barhao, Santan ki seva.
Enhance faith and devotion in me and the spirit of service for the saintly beings.

श्रद्धा भक्ति बढ़ाओ, सन्तन की सेवा ॥

Tana mana dhan sab, haiy teraa, Teraa tujh ko arpan, kya laage meraa

O Lord! This body, mind and wealth is all given by you. I have nothing of my own to offer and am humbly offering your own to you.

तन मन धन सब है तेरा ।
तेरा तुझ को अर्पण, क्या लागे मोरा ॥
